All prices include VAT at standard rate. Since Argentina is a long way from our shores, these wines are subject to availability and vintages may change from those stated. We are happy to decant any of these wines at the table. Please be aware that most of the wines on offer are not filtered and may throw a light deposit. This should be seen as a sign of quality, and is indeed indicative of the low intervention that many wine-makers in Argentina believe contributes to the character of these wines.
